Public Participation

Meetings held by the Chelsea District Library are for the purpose of conducting library business. A Chelsea District Library meeting is not a "public meeting." It is a "meeting held in public." The difference between these two types of meetings is that a public meeting is usually designed for the free flow of information among all in attendance, whereas a meeting held in public is for observation and "Public Input" at specific times on the agenda.

Public Participation at Open Meetings

Meetings held by the Chelsea District Library are for the purpose of conducting library business. Public input is allowed during set times of these meetings and for specific amounts of time.

There are two ways to participate in a Board meeting:

- You may call the Board President or Library Director at least five days in advance of the Board meeting and ask to be placed on the agenda. The Board President or the Library Director shall use their discretion in accepting these requests. The Board decides what agenda items are to be discussed when they formally adopt the agenda at the start of their meeting. Once approved, you will be allowed to make your presentation to the Board.
- You may address the Board during agenda items listed as "Comments from the Public."

Individuals who are addressing the Board at a Board Meeting must state their name and the name of the organization or group they are representing, if that is the case.

Board members may question speakers, but the Board will not enter into debate or conversation during this portion of the meeting. In general, issues are referred to the Director for investigation, study and recommendation, designation as a future agenda item, or answered through written communication.

Director's Report Update:

L. Corvell update:

- Scott Rakestraw, our new Network Administrator, starts Sept. 30.
- Direct Dialoguing on the Double is coming up on Oct. 6, which is a speed round of dialogue with city, state, and federal politicians. Each round will be 3 minutes and then participants will move on and speak to the next politician. Lori read off a list of the politicians who are confirmed as attending.
- Song Fest went really well with record numbers in attendance.
- In-Service feedback was incredibly positive.
- Washtenaw Reads book has been chosen. The book is Dear America: Notes of an Undocumented Citizen by Jose Antonio Vargas. The author event will be January 30.

Strategic Plan Update:

- Winding down on current strategic plan.
- The apron exhibit has been a great inter-generational success.

Friends Report Update:

- Job descriptions have been completed and are up on the Friends website. Next step is recruiting push for new officers.
- Membership drive tea party is Oct. 19.
  - Will draw for a $50 gift certificate to Serendipity Books this year instead of for a Kindle for new member giveaway. Will also give away a $50 gift certificate to a current member who is supporting the fundraising challenge.
- Friends newsletter will be published soon.
- Dottie Staffeld dedication ceremony went well.

Other Reports Notes: Gary Munce arrived.

Public Comment:

Jan went to a meeting about solar power and was asked if the library has ever considered using solar power. Linda answered that we have not, but could discuss it.

Action Item #1: Donations

MOTION made by E. Sensoli, SECONDED by J. Carr to approve and acknowledge the presented 2019 August donations of $5,550.00.

Discussion: None All Ayes: 5-0

Action Item #2: Budget Approval

MOTION made by C. Taylor, SECONDED by E. Sensoli to approve and acknowledge the presented 2020 budget that was discussed in August.

Discussion: TJ read a roll call vote for this action item.

All Ayes: 5-0

Discussion Item #1: Board Retreat

Proposed day is Tuesday, Nov. 19. That is the same day as a regularly scheduled board meeting, so the meeting would be moved to the morning and would precede the retreat. The first part of the retreat will be concentrate on the next strategic plan and Gary had an idea of maybe bringing in a speaker to discuss what is the roll of the board. The board retreat will move to action next month.

Discussion Item #2: Board Feedback

Charlie wants to get more input from library staff about what the board can do to best serve the library. Various ways of achieving this were discussed and Lori shared the feedback from the staff in-service that the board should be more visible at signature programs.

DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Library Director's Report on September 2019 Respectfully submitted for October 2019 Board Meeting

Staffing Updates

Work Anniversary

We celebrated four work anniversaries this month. Congratulations to all!

- Library Aide Julie Pecka, four years on September 15
- Library Assistant Deb Pilarz, thirteen years on September 8
- Library Assistant Amy Zoran, seven years on September 27
- Assistant Director Linda Ballard, 24 years on September 18

New Adult Services Librarian

I am pleased to announce that we have a new Adult Services Librarian! Catherine Sossi is a utility player with a background in both Youth and Adult Services. She has worked at Southfield Public Library, Salem-South Lyon Library, and Detroit Public Library. Her start date is Monday, October 21. Welcome, Catherine!

Word of Mouth Marketing

Kids Read Comics

Kids can meet local comic book artists, participate in hands-on workshops, collect raffle tickets for prizes, discover new comic books, and take home free comics on Saturday, October 26 from 10am - 5pm.

Library Card Sign Up Month

September's efforts to encourage new library card registrations was a success! More than 130 adults and children got their first Chelsea Library Card during September.

Strategic Plan 2017-19 Update

Goal progress from September 2019 is shared below.

Goal 1.1 Realize the highest potential of the Library facility, fully utilizing all existing space to support optimal patron usage and experience.

Goal 1.2 Continue to diversify the Library's revenue sources.

Goal 1.3 Continue to advocate for and support high-speed Internet access throughout the Library service area.

Goal 2.1 Increase awareness/visibility of the Library throughout the community.

• Article in 5 Healthy Towns Connected publication on Storybook trail

Goal 2.2 Conduct regular, meaningful outreach and engagement with residents and representatives of the rural areas of the Library's service district.

· Held library card sign ups at each township hall

Goal 2.3 Strengthen and sustain relationships with schools in the district.

Goal 3.1 Enhance the Library's programs, collections, and services to address the needs and interests of teenage patrons.

Goal 3.2 Provide leadership around issues of diversity, equity, and inclusion through our programs, collections, and services.

Grant-Lee Phillips as featured songwriter for Song Fest

Goal 3.3 Expand the Library's collection of non-traditional items.

Goal 3.4 Collaborate with our community's senior population to create deliberately designed intergenerational programming opportunities.

• Apron Strings exhibit offering all generations opportunities to share personal/family stories

Facility

Design Think update: We have a plan to finish the furniture upholstery by the end of the year. The teen benches and the youth lounge chairs will be done in mid-October, then the four lounge chairs that sit near the New Books upstairs, and last but not least, the four tall-back lime green chairs in the periodical reading area. Stop by and see the teen benches- they look great and the vinyl seats will serve up much better than the old fabric ones did.

Sept/Oct are our usual months for doing the HVAC fall maintenance, getting the system ready for heating season. That was done this month and I had the tech look at the Info Services offices to see if we could determine why they don't seem to be getting the proper air flow up there. He found bad actuators on both of the boxes that serve those areas and ordered replacement parts. I am also waiting for quotes on the phase monitors and the refrigerant monitor. Looks like we are going to use up all of our maintenance contingency after all.

The facility news I am most excited about this month is that the window well finally received a much needed new coat of paint! Meg Gower and I have been trying to get this done for about three years but have been foiled by the weather each time. This fall finally cooperated and it looks so much better now. We still need to put the animals back out (once we weather proof them) and we are working on a way to display a communication piece that explains the quotes and animals. Meg will work with Patty on that part and we hope to roll it out in the spring.

Programs/meetings/outreach/HR

With the promotion of Shannon Powers to Head of Info Services, we needed to replace her with another full-time adult services librarian. We held interviews this month and had two candidates we were very excited about. We hired Catherine Sossi (pronounced "saucy") and she starts on Oct. 21".

Our monthly all-staff meeting focused on first aid, including training on how to use Narcan. This medication is administered via nose spray and is used whenever we suspect a person may be experiencing an opioid overdose. It is simple to use and will not harm the person if they aren't actually experiencing an overdose. We will have a two-dose box at the Check Out desk and the 2nd floor reference desk.

Volunteers

We had 172.5 book sale hours this month and 167.5 non-book sale hours, for a total of 340 hours.

Respectfully submitted-Linda Ballard Assistant Director

Shannon Powers, Head of Information Services

September I began my new position as Head of Information Services, and hit the ground running with a series of programs, outreach events, and exhibit tours. I hosted the Sculpture Walk guided tour with Crystal Scott, helped run Songfest, assisted with the Downton Abbey Party, and planned a tour of the Apron Strings exhibit for a group of residents from the Chelsea Retirement Community, prepping docent cards and soliciting tour guides. I also led a tour of the exhibit for St. Louis Center residents, including a fun apron making craft. This was the first step for me in furthering this important partnership with the St. Louis Center.

Much of this month was devoted to learning the new responsibilities of the job, including meeting with the youth and adult librarians to plan programming and re-assign responsibilities and collections. We made progress planning future events, including the Veteran's Day event coming up in November, and the programming for the winter quarter. The Washtenaw Reads book was also announced, and I was able to reach out to CHS and confirm that they wanted to include the book in their AP English LIt curriculum.

I was able to sit-in on a babytime session this month, and plan to continue to observe more of our youth programs to familiarize myself with the teen and youth services we do and can provide. I also worked with Margaret to transition the book delivery service to her, and to continue to train her on her new responsibilities as a full-time adult librarian.

I had my first newsletter submission and met with Patty and Lori to go over the layout and discuss winter programs and exhibits. I also met with Ron and Terri to discuss department collaborations and our return to a former model for staffing the reference desks. Lori and I also met with staff at the Senior Center to prep for the October Speed Repping program.

On top of these normal duties, Lori, Linda and I interviewed candidates for the Adult Services Librarian position and were successful in securing a fantastic new librarian for the team!

Laura Brown, Adult Information Services Librarian

September was a busy month full of fun programming. Reading Glasses met for the first time on its new date/time: first Wednesdays at 6:30pm at Ugly Dog. We had a nice discussion of The Immortalists by Chloe Benjamin. Silver Maples book club also met this month where we read *The Death of Mrs.*Westaway by Ruth Ware. I held a Downton Abbey Tea Party at the Chelsea Depot where we did crossword puzzles, had a scavenger hunt, made quote coasters, raffled off prizes, gave away candles set in tea cups I made, and, of course, drank tea and ate treats.

CDL's varied displays continued with one I created for the Nutrition Month Instapot drawing we are having with our St. Joseph Mercy Chelsea hospital partnership. I also created the book display in the lobby for Apron Strings, as well as a new Biography display for NF DVDs.

The winter newsletter deadline was mid-month. I wrote text about the suffrage movement for the back page. I also organized programming for our upcoming Washtenaw Reads book, Dear America, as well as other adult winter quarter programming.

With our upcoming Veteran's Day presentation with the city in November, I've been working with Jim Alford, who will be our main speaker, as well as Tom Zatkovich, who is the honored veteran this year.

I'm always busy ordering something for the adult collection. With Shannon taking on Keegan's responsibilities, I've had a lot on my plate as I inherited CDL's adult fiction and large print collections, as well as our Overdrive Advantage collection of e-books. In preparation for displaying our large holiday collections, I also weeded holiday music CDs and holiday DVDs.

We had some major newspaper delivery issues over the last few months with the Detroit Free Press, but I believe they are finally solved. Jessica and I also spent significant time organizing our outer office as we anticipate the arrival of our new adult librarian in October.

Margaret Loebe, Adult Information Services Librarian

As a part time librarian who has become full time, this month, I have a lot of learning to do. I have taken on CDL Delivers and local and family history as foci, so I have spent quite a bit of time learning about CDL Delivers and working with patrons and volunteers. I look forward to growing the CDL Delivers program, as I think it's essential for access in our community.

I had a couple of high engagement reference interviews:

A patron had a short term tech need. She had already created the memorial PowerPoint for a loved one, but she needed help getting music to play in the background. I helped her rip the CD onto her machine and create a playlist so one song would play on loop. I assisted her in embedding the presentation and we found a file sharing service that she could use to send the file to friends.

A patron is a sponsor of a Filipino student's schooling in the Philippines. They discuss the student's coursework, which has lately included English lit. The patron is going to read a translated classic of Filipino literature so they can discuss it. The patron brought in the title and author, and we searched for it. And searched and searched and searched. TLN doesn't have the title. Finally, I found the translated title (a very pretty illustrated version with both Tagalog and English) in 2017 in WorldShare. There are 24 libraries in the world who have it, and only one is one we could request it from through ILL. However, I used that ISBN to find the item on Amazon, and the patron is going to purchase it.

In July, I began Library Recess, a self-directed program series. Every month, I set up an activity for patrons to engage with. This month, in conjunction with Apron Strings, I set up a table near the adult Ref desk with blank Recipe Cards and an assortment of rubber stamps, ink pads, and colored pencils. Patrons decorated 67 cards, and the activity generated several conversations about the exhibit. I look forward to continuing to grow this program series and to support the library's offerings with it.

I led the Book Club for Busy People this month, which was the first month for this program. We read The Lightkeeper's Daughter, a beautiful novel set on Lake Superior. The 8 participants had a lively discussion about the intricately plotted novel.

I have been purchasing materials for much of the non-fiction collection (particularly with the staffing changes, many of those responsibilities have come to me). A few of the titles that patrons have been interested include: The Art of Statistics by David Spiegelhalter, a clear and visually appealing explanation of statistics and March Sisters edited by Kate Bolick, which is a collection of essays about Little Women.

Stacey Comfort, Youth & Teen Information Services Librarian

The end of summer may mean the beginning of the school year for our teens, but it also means a return to That Thursday Thing programming for me. We had a great time playing Bears vs. Babies and Superfight at the Board Game Bonanza, and because of this, I plan to have board games available at future TTT nights as a way to wind down from the main activity. I reached out to Todd Dziobak, owner of the local comic shop, Secret Crisis Comics, to get some recommendations and learn the mechanics of popular games, too.

I also had several 3D Printing appointments, after Edith's dinosaur program used some of the 'dragon eggs' I had made for her scavenger hunt. I've also started working with Ron on the Adult VR nights, which are a lot of fun for both us and the patrons. My teen VR has been busier, as well, and I have several repeat visitors. We're discussing getting more games for the Playstation 4 and Lenovo units to keep interest up.

I began purchasing adult graphic novels this month, and started by making sure we had popular and important works like the Eisner-winning Saga series, and George Takei's telling of his time in a Japanese internment camp, They Called Us Enemy. I look forward to curating this collection, as well as my teen fiction and teen graphics, which were both weeded this month.

Edith Donnell, Youth & Teen Information Services Librarian

September was a month for fun and exploration. Highlights include a fun minecraft monday where kids built their own schools, a dino themed early reader book club where kids did a crazy scavenger hunt around the youth area before reading true and false dinosaur facts to one another, and homeschool families visited a biodynamic farm in Grass Lake.

I was also busy preparing promotional materials for Kids Read Comics, and finaling Winter programming. I purchased video games, dvds, weeded Playaway Views, and ordered Kirkus starred review items.

Jessica Zubik, Youth & Teen Information Services Librarian

September was an incredibly busy month as Shannon transitioned to the Head of our department and we jumped right into programming for the new quarter. I am now overseeing the StoryBook Trail, and had the opportunity to set up the September story pages at the beginning of the month, as well as prepare the October story from start to finish! It is a fun but highly-involved project, and I'll be spending some time in October looking for ways to streamline the process.

We're always looking for ways to connect with organizations and businesses in the Chelsea community, and this month I collaborated with Keegan Rogers, owner of the Lakehouse Bakery, for a banana bread baking workshop for kids and their families. It was a messy good time (mashing bananas with our hands!) and we are hoping to team up for programs in the spring and summer. I also presented an outreach storytime at Mudpies & Lullabies Daycare for the first time and created a take-home early literacy handout that went home with each child with coordinating activities families could do together at home. Going forward, we'll be including these handouts at all outreach storytimes and other preschool events!

Two other programming successes included facilitating the very first Sensory Open Playtime and an inspiring discussion at Tween Book Club. Sensory Open Playtime was such an enjoyable, low-key time with several families who have children with special needs. I set up sensory stations in KidSpot, such as kinetic sand, water beads, a dino dig, and reading station with touch-and-feel books, and the kids responded well to this open environment where they could choose which activities they wanted to try while their parents had a chance to chat. And at book club, we read The Westing Game and our discussion led into several questions about banned and challenged books from the kids. We ultimately decided that some children's books are banned or challenged because adults are afraid of the ideas they represent. I was blown away by the maturity and thoughtfulness of their questions and conversation! Finally, I set up some outreach opportunities at South Meadows Elementary School. Joy Jan Jones, who participated in Music in the Air at the library, will be coming back to Chelsea to set up and lead a short operatic performance with Mrs. Radomski's fourth grade class in November. I also set up a morning to do book talks later that month in all classrooms in the building.

Technology Summary of September 2019

情

From: Ron Andrews – Head of Technology Monthly Summary

As expected September was full of trial and error. I spend the majority of the month troubleshooting and thankfully resolving small tech problems. Additionally, I spent time on updating the training matrix for our new Network Administrator – Scott Rakestraw, and pulling together documents and procedures to show him our processes.

I am still working on updating the Hotspots inventory and primarily the Mobile Beacon devices. I have completed the ones from the Chelsea Senior Center and just finished the ones from the school system. All that is remains in getting the devices back from Faith In Action and then finishing up with the rest of our public devices. Hopefully this updated inventory will help Scott and I to manage this service better.

Finally, I did manage to make system and phone changes for; Shannon promotion to Head of Information Services, Margaret's change to full time and she and Edith's desk and phone relocation. I also created Scott's new account

Technology

- Minor troubleshooting for staff primarily and a few public incidents
- Changed: email access, groups, phone accounts and locations, and setting up Active Directory, email and phone account for Scott.
- Changed phone system hours after Labor Day
- Xibo display system issue resolved with the help of the Information Services staff, but will be discussing with Scott
- Assisted Friends webmaster with some minor changes to their website

Outreach/Programming

- Maintaining all outreach programming at the CRC and St Louis Center. Looking for more volunteers to help at the SLC Virtual Reality sessions due to Melanie's departure
- Helped IS staff with setup for Minecraft program.
- · Working with Broadband committee for meeting space and hosting

Other

 Meeting with AIM High folks as wrap up to our summer Intern project. Everyone left pleased and open to the possibility of having another intern.

Ron Andrews

From: Scott Rakestraw - Network Administrator

Although I have been on the job less than two weeks as of this writing, I am pleased to report that the current state of the network and computer systems is very good. I have spent a great deal of time getting to know staff and becoming familiar with the current procedures in place. I am working my through the computer network documentation and discovering Chelsea.

I am very happy to be here and look forward to serving our patrons.

Discussed in-service date of November 19 at the September meeting.

Action:

The Chelsea District Library Board of Trustees approves the annual Board Retreat date of Tuesday, November 19, 2019. As this is the regularly scheduled board meeting day, the November Board Meeting will be moved to the morning and precede the retreat. The board meeting portion will begin at 9 a.m. and take place in the McKune Room. The board meeting is open to the public, though the remainder of the retreat is for trustees only.
